

Paula Ann Ford Landscape Workshop

When: Saturday April 17th 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Where: Garry McMichael's Studio
1926 Allen (near Lafayette Square)
St. Louis, Missouri, 63104

This will be an all day workshop designed for beginning and intermediate pastelists to improve their landscape painting skills. Paula Ann Ford will be demonstrating her techniques for creating the beautiful atmospheric effects she uses in painting the Smoky Mountains near her home in Chattanooga, Tennessee. You can see samples of her work and read her blog at www.paulaford.com.

This will be a "hands on" workshop where participating artists will create a landscape painting with Paula Ford's guidance.

Cost: $80 for Gateway Pastel Artists Nonmembers, $100; join the Gateway Pastel Group and enjoy a years membership for only $5 more. Forty dollar deposit will hold your spot. If you cancel prior to April 9th your deposit is fully refundable.

Once you register, a workshop material list and directions to Garry's studio will be provided. You can register at the next GPA meeting or by mail.

Send deposit checks to: Michele Wells, President
